TWO JOCKEYS SET DOWN

CAIRNGORM WINS DERBY.

Saratoga Stewards Discipline Baird and Kelly for Lax Rides.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 17.-In two instances this afternoon the racing public felt that it did not have a "run for its money," and, what is more to the point, the stewards agreed with the public. The two alleged culprits were Henry Baird, the clever lightweight apprentice boy, and J. Kelly, a steeplechase rider. Baird had the mount on Sydney Paget's Octagon colt, Woodsaw, one of a dozen platers that made up the field for a seven furlong sprint which opened the afternoon's racing. Woodsaw has some pretensions to class, and so superior did he appear to his opponents that when even money was posted against his chances the form players jumped at it greedily.

It is alleged, however, that certain books laid a more generous price and refused to recede from the top quotations in spite of the heavy commissions that were placed with them. However this may be, the fact remains that, when the barrier went up, Woodsaw was left standing sidewise, and so thoroughly out of the running that Baird made no effort to go on with him and merely cantered over the course,

Neither Mr. Cassidy, the starter, nor the stewards of the meeting were satisfied with the boy's forts, and an investigation was begun at once. No decision has yet been reached, and the only punishment meted out to the lockey so far is a air day suspension imposed by Mr. Cassidy.

Kelly, the steeplechase jockey, excited the suspicions of the stewards of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association by his alleged apathetic ride on Ruth's Rattler, which was one of four starters in a handicap over the full course. The gelding is not moulded on lines that would fill a horseman's eye, except as an equine picture much out of drawing. He looks so though excavations had been going on for centuries in his internal economy without much success to the explorers, but he can gallop and he can jump, and the plungers selected him to beat Connover, the even money favorite.

Mr. Harris had the leg up on Connover, and, as the course was longer than the old gelding usually cares for, he tried to rate him, and in doing so caused him to take off badly at a fence and go down. With Connover out of it, the three others had the race to themselves, with Buck O'Dowd, the lightweight, blazing the way. At the last Liverpool Knight of Harlem rapped so hard and came so near going to his kness that Holman, his rider, threw his shoulder out of joint and the horse ceased to be a factor.

Ruth's Rattier went so wide at the turn out of the backstretch that Buck O'Dowd, which was still setting the pace, increased his lead material-ly and came home alone. Ruth's Rattler was an easy second. To many who watched the race closely the last named appeared done to a turn, but the stewards evidently thought there was still some smouldering fire left in the equine ruin and that Kelly had failed to fan it into

The tockey was promptly sentenced, and as promptly countered on the officials, lodging a claim against Buck O'Dowd, which was so far in front that he could not have fouled anything in the race without turning two backward somer-saults. The stewards were only momentarily staggered and came back by setting Kelly down for six days and referring his case to the stew-ards of the National Steeplechase and Hunt As-

FAVORITES WIN AT LATONIA.

Cininnati, Aug. 17.-Favorites were to the front at Latonia to-day, landing in the first four races on a heavy track. The other two events went to well played long shots. Radthe piloted three win-ners, one second and was unplaced once. The win-bers were Stover Hill. Scotch Phistle, Miss Man-ners, Bardolph, Burnolette and Dungannon.

CALLAHAN WILL LIVE.

Injured Cross Country Jockey Regains Consciousness.

[BT TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 17.—Harry Callahan, the steeplechase jockey, who was thrown from Malden on Wednesday and was thought to be fatally injured, has recovered consciousness and is on the road to recovery. The accident which occurred to Holman to-day was an unusual one in a steeplechase, inasmuch as he had his shoulder thrown out without being thrown or having his horse go down with him. From the stand it looked as though he had twisted his shoulder out in trying to maintain his seat after the horse had blundered. If the betting is an index of the sort of ride Baird was expected to give Woodsaw in the first race the case does not look promising for him. The horse opened at 3 to 5, then went to evens, and finally closed at 7 to 5. While the outsiders were taking these prices gleefully the alleged chosen few bet on Fustian and Colone White. White.

Few who saw the race ridden by Kelly on Ruth's Rattler agree with the stewards in suspending the boy for an apathetic ride. The light weighted Buck O'Dowd had him beaten at the turif into the backstretch the last time around, and Kelly rode a vigorous race for the fourney.

rest of the journey.

James Robertson claimed Colonel White this afternoon for $2,140, and Jack McGinnis got Confederate in the same way. Kansas Price bid Calabash up to $1,400, at which sum the colt was transferred to him.

The second running of the Saratoga Derby was won by Sydney Paget's extremely useful colt Cairngorm, after he had twice tried to run out once at the paddock turn and again at the head of the stretch. At the last eighth pole Glenecho apparently had him beaten, but it was only the last flash in the pan of the little son of Longstreet, and Cairngorm, coming again under punishment, won by a length or so.

The only other starters were Von Tromp and Merry Lark. The former was outrun and the latter had most of the running knocked out of him in the crowding at the paddock turn. The winner was at the prohibitive price of 5 to 2 on.

PARKWAY HARLEQUIN.

Running and Trotting Races Pleased Big Crowd at Gravesend.

The much heralded combination trotting and running meeting at the half mile track of the Parkway Driving Club, at Gravesend, opened yesterday afternoon with a vengeance. The crisp weather attracted a large crowd to the track and there was some first class racing. For those who there was some first class racing. For those who wished to speculate there was a large tent spread near the grandstand where pools were sold on the harness races and bookmakers offered odds on the heats and on the running races. Owing to the two days' rain the races were called at 1 p. m. and were not finished until darkness interfered.

Three harness races were on the card, two for the trotters and one for the pacers. All were best three in five heats. The 2.35 pace went to Colonel Henry, owned and driven by John H. Powers, of Brooklyn, in three straight heats. The winner was favorite at 7 to 20 in the auction pools and is a good, shifty pacer. Sliver Patch took down second money and Lady Superior third.

The 2.17 trot required four heats before Norval was returned the winner. Sultana N. took second money and Sweet Inniscarra was third. Colonel Julien, one of the choices, was distanced in the first heat, when he went to a had break.

The 2.20 trot proved to be a duel between A. Laundry and Merriss Hawker, with the "wash" horse winning out in five heats. Lakeville Maid took third money, and Dorothy Day was fourth.

The least said about the running races the better. They were not pulled off exactly according to "big track" etiquette. "Father Bill" Daly was the prime mover. He started Tomcod and Et Tu Brute and ran second with both. Tomcod started again, but was not placed.

The venerable "Sage of Hartford" told the officials how to start the runners, and in general superintended the proceedings. There was an impression prevalent that the club had no right to hold running races, but the willy Mr. Daly announced that he had seen the Jockey Club stewards himself and that the fact was that he had sanctioned the races as the meet came under the wished to speculate there was a large tent spread nounced that he had seen the Jockey Club stewards himself and that the fact was that he had sanctioned the races as the meet came under the head of a county fair.

"Do you think the owner of a big stable like mestif would be after taking inv chances of being outlawed," said "Father Bill," with a withering glance, as he stumped toward the secretary's office to collect what he had won. The meeting will continue to-day and to-merrow. The summaries:

The Giants shut out Chicago at the Polo Grounds yesterday in the first game since the return home after a successful Western trip. The score was 3 to 0. Mathewson was in the box for the local nine, and was in rare form keeping the visitors down to three scattered hits. He was backed by perfect support. A large crowd was on hand to do honor to the occasion, and there were frequent exciting plays that kept the spectators on the qui vive. Wicker pitched for the visitors and was hit hard. The fielding of the Chicagos at times was poor, and three errors were marked against them.

Mertes, in the third inning, made a great ning catch of Hoffman's fast drive. In the third inning the local men took the lead, making two runs. Mathewson started the good work by sending out a single. Strang filed and Bresna-han received a base on balls.

Then McGann singled and Mathewson crossed the plate. Bresnahan tried to do the same on the hit, but was put out at the plate. Mertes sin-gled and then followed a double steal on which McGann crossed the plate.

.trang, in the fifth inning, sent the ball into the right field bleachers for a home run. The

SUPERBAS LOSE BY ONE RUN.

Play Fast Ball with Pirates at Washington Park, but Are Beaten.

After having divided a double header with Pittsburg on the way home from the Western trip n Wednesday, the Brooklyn team met the Pittsburg players on the home grounds at Washington Park yesterday and were defeated by a score of 5 to 4. The hitting on both sides was pretty even, but the visitors took the lead in the opening and held it to the end. The score:

EXPERTS AT THE NETS. Many Matches on Meadow Club

Courts-Clothier in Bad Shape. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Southampton, Long Island, Aug. 17.-Playing in excellent form, Frederick G. Anderson, of Brooklyn, the Kings County champion, won a place in the semi-final rounds of the singles here to-day in the lawn tennis tournament on the courts of the Meadow Club. It was a big singles when play was brought to a close. The doubles were also well advanced. William A. Larned paired with Henry Holt in place of William J. Clothier, as was intended. The tall Harvard player has an injured foot, which is badly cut and is infected to such an extent that he is not likely to be seen in the national championship tournament at Newport next day and only five matches remained in the Larned and Holt engaged in two matches, winning both, and a bracket in the semi-final round of the doubles. Twenty pairs entered for play in this event and the matches which held the courts during the afternoon proved highly spectacular.

week

Anderson displayed the best form he has shown in many years. He seldom made a fault, and Alien, the New-York Athletic Club player, whom he defeated, was constantly returning the ball into the net. Allen lost the match, 4—6, 6—0, 6—3.

the ball into the net. Allen lost the match, 4-6, 6-0, 6-3.
All of the third round of the singles was completed. Richard Stevens, the expert base line player, defeated Henry W. Slocum. The latter was no match for Stevens and lost, 6-1, 6-2. Clarence Hobart beat C. F. Watson, jr., so there will be another meeting of the veterans in the morning. Hobart has shown much skill so far and he is expected to win in the sem-final over Stevens.

Stevens.

In the Vale-Harvard match Karl Behr, the Valensian, beat the former champion of the Crimson, Edgar W. Leonard, 6-1, 4-6 and 6-3. In the doubles the work of Clarence Hobart and Wylie C. Grant attracted the attention of the tennis following. Hobart was brilliant to a high degree and his half volley shots frequently earned the applause of the gallery that spread itself out over the lawn. The summaries:
